

Space Coast Black Chamber of Commerce

Terms & Conditions

When joining the Space Coast Black Chamber of Commerce, both the organization and its members agree to abide by a set of terms and conditions. These guidelines ensure a harmonious, productive, and mutually beneficial relationship. Below is a general outline of the typical terms and conditions members can expect:

Membership Terms

1. Eligibility and Application
 - Membership is open to businesses, organizations, and individuals that support the Chamber's mission and objectives.
 - Applicants must complete and submit a membership form, providing accurate and current information.
2. Membership Dues
 - Members are required to pay annual dues as determined by the Chamber's Board of Directors.
 - Fees are due upon application approval and annually thereafter on the member's anniversary date.
3. Member Obligations
 - Members agree to uphold the Chamber's values and contribute positively to the community.
 - Participation in Chamber events, meetings, and initiatives is encouraged to maximize membership benefits.

Conduct and Ethics

1. Professional Conduct
 - Members must conduct their business and interactions with integrity, professionalism, and respect for others.
 - Discrimination, harassment, or unethical behavior is not tolerated and may result in membership termination.
2. Use of Chamber Resources
 - Members may have access to certain resources, such as event spaces, promotional opportunities, and networking events.
 - These resources should be used responsibly and in alignment with the Chamber's objectives.

Benefits and Services

1. Networking and Events
 - Members can attend networking events, seminars, and workshops designed to foster business growth and community engagement.
 - Opportunities to sponsor or host events are available, providing additional visibility for member businesses.

2. Marketing and Promotion

- Members can benefit from promotional opportunities on the Chamber's website, newsletters, and social media platforms.
- Inclusion in the Chamber's business directory is often part of the membership package.

Termination and Suspension

1. Voluntary Termination

- Members may choose to terminate their membership with written notice to the Chamber.
- Refunds of membership dues are typically not provided upon voluntary termination.

2. Involuntary Termination

- The Chamber reserves the right to terminate membership for non-compliance with terms and conditions or conduct detrimental to the Chamber's reputation.
- Affected members will receive written notice and may appeal the decision within a specified timeframe.

Amendments to Terms

- The Chamber reserves the right to amend these terms and conditions. Members will be notified of any changes and are expected to comply with the updated terms.
- It is the responsibility of members to stay informed about current terms and conditions.

By adhering to these terms and conditions, the Space Coast Black Chamber of Commerce members can ensure a collaborative and effective relationship that benefits both individual businesses and the wider community.
